Greetings Calafia,

We are so excited for this month of June. Fighter practices and SCA events will resume where we can once again gather with our friends. We are so overjoyed with the thought.

As we begin to meet, please be patient with one another and follow the guidelines that have been set out for the SCA’s reopening of events. The guidelines are there to help protect you. We have missed you and want you to feel safe among your friends. In order to do that, we all need to do our part.

One of the first CAID Kingdom events will be Coronation and Queen’s champion tourney in July. We congratulate Their Majesties Pansa and Katherine on their long-awaited coronation. If you have a gift for Their Majesties, we would be happy to present it to them for you. Just contact us.

Let us thank all the good gentles that have been working very hard with officials to help the SCA get back up and running.

Long Live the Dream.

In Happy Service to CAID and Calafia,

Baron Gamyl and Baroness Danyel
IN-PERSON EVENTS ARE SCHEDULED TO RESUME IN CAID STARTING MID-JUNE
All events and attendees must adhere to the following regulations at this time:

- All event attendees must be pre-registered. At this time you will not be able to just show up to an event. Links to register for events will be shared on baronial and kingdom Facebook pages.
- Attendance will be limited based on state, county, and city regulations. Currently the cap for events is 150 people. However if any territory within the kingdom has a lower limit, all events will be restricted to that number.
- At this time mask are required for all gatherings. Starting July 1, 2021 the SCA will not require masks, however if state/county/city regulations state otherwise, masks will need to be worn. Additionally, event venues may also require attendees to wear masks.
- Event venues are allowed to and may require proof of vaccination for all attendees.
- Food sharing with anyone outside of your residence at events is not permitted at this time.

A note re local events:
- Due to the strain the pandemic has had on the coffers, our local events must break even with costs vs profits, so some events will be combined and others may be postponed. If it looks likely that an event may not be able to meet the financial goal, that event may be postponed until a later date. Updates and announcements for events will be posted to the Barony Facebook group.

This is not the complete list of regulations for the Kingdom of Caid or Barony of Calafia. Additional restrictions and requirements may be implemented at any time. Full details can be found on the Kingdom and Barony Facebook pages.

Happy New Year Calafia!

As we move from Anno Societatis 55 into Anno Societatis 56, we find ourselves also transitioning from a year of isolation, lockdowns, and uncertainty... into re-opening, re-connecting, and finally (safely) gathering in person again!

Your editors have discovered a sense of renewal with this issue, in part due to the correlation with the SCA’s new year - a new year we hope will bond us even more strongly together as a society (and Society). As such this issue's Special Feature is dedicated to the wonderful new year celebrations that occur throughout the Known World. We’ve highlighted a couple here, but there are many more should you find yourself curious to explore.

- Aztecs, Egyptians, and other ancient societies would frequently celebrate New Years in the springtime as it represented the return of sunshine and flowering plants, and marked the beginning of the planting season in agricultural societies.

- The South Korean new year, Seollal, occurs on February 16 (as does the Chinese New Year). South Koreans consider themselves to have aged on Seollal, instead of on the day of their birth.

- A Greek tradition, Podariko, was one of the first customs to take place with the advent of new year celebrations. Similar to English and Scottish "first foot" traditions, Podariko holds that the first person to enter a house on new year day can bring either good or bad luck to the household, and as such many hosts still keep the tradition alive by carefully selecting the first person to enter their house.

Our recipe feature for this issue is an Iranian dish traditionally served on Nowruz, the Persian new year celebration, called Kuku sabzi. The Iranian new year is a celebration of the spring equinox and occurs round March 21st - promising abundance and fertility for the incoming year!
A New Years' Recipe

Kuku Sabzi (کوکو سبزی)
Circa 1505

Cookbooks dating from Iran’s Qajar and Safavid periods mention kuku frequently. It is most noted as a side dish served at festivals celebrating the new year and more recently, Easter for those of Iranian Armenian and Iranian Georgian descent.

Kuku is traditionally served with flatbread and a selection of crunchy and acidic condiments to balance the sweetness of the herbs. Favourites are fresh radishes, the chopped eggplant pickles called līteh and chunks of soft, salty feta cheese. In addition to many ways of eating - there are a variety of styles of kuku based on the region and the vegetation around. The more popular versions are potato kuku (kuku sibzamini), eggplant kuku (kuku-ye bādenjān, vereqā), roe kuku (āšbal kuku), with the herb kuku (kuku sabzī) being the most well-known and popular.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pound cilantro (about 3 large bunches)
- 1 pound Italian parsley (about 3 large bunches)
- 1 large bunch fresh dill
- 4 crisp leaves from a romaine heart
- 2 large leeks, roots and top 1 inch trimmed
- 3 tablespoons plus 1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
- Fine sea salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1 tablespoon dried fenugreek
- 2 teaspoons dried dill
- ¼ cup barberries, rinsed and dried
- 1 teaspoon ground turmeric
- ½ teaspoon baking powder
- 6 to 7 large eggs
- 4 tablespoons unsalted butter (1/2 stick)
- Radishes, for serving (optional)
- Persian līteh pickles or cornichons, for serving (optional)
- Feta, for serving (optional)
- Warmed flatbread, such as sangak, pita or lavash, for serving (optional)
- Mast-o Khiar, for serving (optional)
PREPARATION

- Trim woody ends from cilantro, parsley and dill so that only leaves and tender stems remain. Wash herbs and romaine leaves, then use a salad spinner to dry very well. Set aside.
- Finely dice both the green and white parts of the leeks. Wash well and drain.
- Set a 10-inch cast-iron or nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When the pan is hot, add 3 tablespoons oil. When the oil shimmers, add leeks. Season with a generous pinch of salt and cook, stirring occasionally, until translucent and softened but not browned, about 20 minutes, reducing the heat if necessary.
- In the meantime, very finely chop the cilantro, parsley, dill and romaine by hand — the smaller the pieces, the more deeply green your kuku will be. To chop such a large volume of herbs, take a large handful or two at a time and roll into a tight ball. Run a large, sharp knife through the ball to initially chop the herbs roughly, then continue to rock the knife back and forth through the pile of herbs until very finely chopped. Repeat with remaining herbs until finished. Combine the chopped herbs and romaine with the dried fenugreek and dried dill in a very large bowl.
- When leeks are cooked, add herb mixture and another generous pinch of salt to the pan and cook, stirring often, until it dries out and the color changes to a very dark green, about 5 minutes. Transfer the mixture back into the very large bowl; spread it out, then allow it to cool to room temperature.
- When the herb mixture has cooled, add barberries, turmeric, baking powder, 2 teaspoons salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Taste the mixture: It should be a little on the salty side. If it’s not, add a little more salt. One at a time, add eggs to the herb mixture, stirring well after each addition. Use as few eggs as needed to barely bind the mixture; this will ensure a brilliant-green kuku. The mixture should be the consistency of a loose porridge.
- Wipe out the pan and melt the butter over medium-high heat. When the butter melts, add remaining 1/4 cup oil. Add a tiny spoonful of the kuku mixture to the pan. When it sizzles, add the rest of the mixture and use a rubber spatula to spread it out evenly. The oil should bubble up the sides of the kuku. Run the spatula around the edge and jiggle the pan from time to time to check that the mixture isn’t sticking. Cook, rotating pan a quarter turn every 3 to 4 minutes, until the kuku is set, the bottom is a very dark brown, and the edges are golden brown, 15 to 20 minutes. Don’t be afraid of getting your crust really dark — it will appear almost burned, but it will taste heavenly sweet.
- Use a rubber spatula to ensure that the kuku is not stuck to the pan, then carefully tip as much of the oil as possible into a medium bowl and set aside. Cover the pan with a large, flat platter or pizza pan and flip the kuku onto it and set aside. Return the oil to the pan and carefully slide the flipped kuku back into the pan to cook the second side. Cook over medium-high until the second side is dark brown and the kuku is cooked through, about 5 more minutes.
- While the kuku finishes cooking, wipe off the platter and line with a double layer of paper towels. Flip the finished kuku onto the prepared platter and use another paper towel to dab excess oil from the surface. To serve, flip once more onto a serving platter and peel away paper towels.
- Serve warm, cold or at room temperature, with your choice of radishes, pickles, feta, warmed flatbread and mast-o khiair.

EVENTS FOR THIS YEAR:

We are looking at having a Virtual Potrero happening Memorial Day Weekend. We will be looking at Discord and Zoom. Looking at Classes and Activities on Saturday, a small thing on Friday and Court with hangout on Sunday. Very Chill. If you are interested in learning more about virtual, please contact the Seneschal.

Leodamus- August
Leif – October
Equestrian and Anniversary both in November
Winter Arts in December

We are looking for stewards for these events. If things to take a turn and we must close, please be aware that the options are a virtual event or cancelling. The bid forms will be online.
2022 – We thought it would be fun to look at Kingdom Events we run each year. What do you as the populace feel would be fun to run? If you would like to see an event run that is not showing let us know.

Events: Finding a site that can host multiple forms would be great.
- Winter Coronation/12th Night/Sunday Privy Council
- Spring Consort’s Champion (Martial forms)
- Spring Consort’s Champion Archery/Thrown Weapons
  - If you wanted to combine them, you could use El Monte to combine Martial and Archery/Thrown Weapons
    - We do not have enough space for royal rounds there so it might not be good for Champion.
- Spring Festival of the Rose
  - If we could get the Encinitas Senior Center that would be a good place for this event.
- Spring Crown Tourney
  - El Monte is plenty big for Crown Tourney.
    - It has been remarked that it’s far away, but it is a good site.
  - Bates Nut Farm – Would it work for a Crown Tourney? It might? It is just as far away as El Monte.
    - We might be able to put the Martial/Archery and Thrown Weapons together at that site for Champions.
- Spring Consort’s Champion Equestrian
  - Tumbleweeds could host Equestrian, Thrown Weapons and Archery
- Pentathlon
  - 2-day event in that the judging happens on the 1st day and the 2nd day is display.
  - Pentathlon has its own steward that handles that side you would be the host.
- Summer Coronation & Sunday Privy Council
- Fall Consort’s Champion
- Fall Consort’s Champion Archery/Thrown Weapons

- The beach is a great site, but we technically are not supposed to have any martial forms there.
- UCSD you now must pay for parking. They might be redeveloping Stonehenge so it might not be there in 2022.
- Some considerations for a site include can we park there.
- Does anyone have contact with churches that would let us have a Coronation on a Saturday.
  - We could check the Poway Community Church and see if they would be interested in having us there again.
- We might want to postpone doing a coronation until 2023 as we will be starting up Potrero that year.
- We do need to be cognizant of Potrero fees and Keep fees. We have really pulled on our General funds to the point of almost draining the general funds. We need to make sure of the cost and be aware of our resources.
- In terms of events as fundraisers Crown Tourneys are more lucrative.
- Is there going to be a July Coronation this year?
  - Tentatively. If we do have one it will be outside and very unique. For 2021 the events have been fully billed out.
- Suggestion: We bid the martial, archery and thrown weapons championships for Spring and have them all together at Bates and Festival of the Rose in Fall at Encinitas.
  - There are equestrian centers in Valley Center that we could check out.
- Comment: With better weather should we take on events that happen in the Summertime and allow the places that have hotter weather take the “Cooler” events.
  - Comic Con also happens in July and we use that as a recruitment time.
- We do bid on these events. So TE, Exchequer and Seneschal will take a look at finances put in 1st choice, 2nd choice and 3rd choice to Kingdom and then Kingdom will let us now. We should hear back this year about 2022 choices.
The events process in the SCA is a complicated one. If you are interested or have any questions, please feel free to contact the Seneschal.

We are looking for bids for:
- Leodamus - August
- Leif – October
- Equestrian - November
- Anniversary - November
- Winter Arts - December
We will help you find a site because of the timing of this year.

NOTE: Today is your last day to send in nominations for the Rapier Marshal! The link is online. By the 22nd March we will open for polling and will have a new rapier Marshal by April Council.

Congrats to Caesar’s son who got an award in Health and Science at school!

COMMENTARY FROM THE BARON AND BARONESS

Happy Birthday Henrik and our Seneschal! For those who are doing the 100-day Pel challenge you all are amazing. We are looking forward to starting up but like Ace said we will be starting when everyone in the Kingdom starts.

If you are a Guild Member, please pass the information along to the Guild Master/Mistresses. Council may remain virtual for a little bit as we find a way to do a live meeting in a safe way. We will coordinate this.

COMMENTARY FROM THE SENESCHAL

We don’t have a terrible amount of information about reopening. Per Kingdom of Caid that we are sitting at the highest level. We will function as Kingdom rather than individual groups. I have been in contact with the County and they look forward to having Potrero 2022. We are having an informational meeting on the 18th from 4p-5p for Virtual Potrero. We are looking for volunteers for moderating. We will also be collecting and soliciting teachers and bards. But Sunday is primarily an informational meeting to see where we are at.

We will be looking into disinfect the Keep. We are sure how yet but we would be looking at doing Fundraising in getting a dumpster to the Keep to throw things away. We will also be looking at cleaning the Office area for classes and meetings. We are also looking at renting industrial shop vacs.

For our Guild Masters and Mistresses, you will be getting letters to see if you will be returning to active status or no. We will give 30-45 days to respond and if you decide to go dark we will absorb the Guild Funds into the General Fund.

We will have two officers change overs at Potrero. Tyndell will be the new Deputy Rapier Marshal and Lady Thora will replace Lord Otamr as Chatelaine.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM PEERS AND KINGDOM OFFICERS

Reminder – you can still send in letters for the Laurelate. The address is on the kingdom web page. Their Majesties and Their Excellencies are always looking for letters of recommendations for awards.

There will be a Lucet class on Saturday because we need more award cords for the Kingdom and the Barony. If you want to learn Kumihimo please reach out to Duchess Eilidh, she is also willing to provide the items to do it.

OTHER:

- Summer: Works for a non-profit Youth organization – it is a Golf program for kids and this summer they are offering a Summer Camps. The theme is kind of Renaissance/Mythology/Legend and they were wondering if anyone was interested in offering a workshop or a Mini Ren Faire on the weekend of June 21st. It’s going to be small, staff and about 14 kids.
  - While the SCA is closed is Summer is putting their contact information in the chat in case anyone is interesting to volunteer. If things do change, we can definitely reach out.
  - Cut off in signing up?
    - Not really. Probably the week before.

POTRERO

- Potrero War FB group will open in May where we can share stories and pictures. It is currently in post approval right now. For those that post about the showers please stop, we do not want to hear any more about the showers. Virtual Potrero will be embracing SCA at home and a little bit about A Knight’s Tale. Our relationships and bonds are as strong as ever and is something to be celebrated. It’s time to give us a big pat on the back and celebrate on how the SCA survived in a really strange situation. There might be a photo contest for Potrero ads.

- We will be reaching out for teachers. Our A&S officer has graciously offered to be the POC for those who are interested. If you are recording a class, we are asking for waivers to be signed so we can share it. Her link is going to be posted this weekend (Saturday) for those who are interested in teaching.
COMMENTARY FROM THE BARON AND BARONESS

It’s great to see everybody. I want to thank Sabyna for doing all the hard work during this pandemic as well as our Social Media Office in keeping us connected as we get started up. One other thing – Fighters just an FYI check with Sheridan as he is doing a rattan run. If you don’t know him, contact the Baron and he will get you set up.

COMMENTARY FROM THE SENESCHAL

Welcome everybody. We are so excited to have everybody. Because of the lengthy agenda we are going to be taking questions via chat. We will answer them as we get to the Q&A sections of this meeting. We will do our best to have open mike Q&A at the end of the Council but if you’d rather email me, please feel free. Nest month we will be doing normal rules of going through the Officer Reports.

1. We are currently seeking a site for Anniversary; Bates Nut Farm is booked, and it would be great to find a location further north. I will be reaching out to the county about El Monte, but if anyone has contacts for a park we can use please let me know via email.
   ○ This is going to be a large event that the site will need to accommodate parking.

2. Guild stewards must respond to my email regarding their active status by 6/15/2021 or the guild will be made dark.

3. Council will be remaining virtual for the time being.
   ○ We will be doing this to save on costs.

4. To announce new deputy: Ariana verc Gwenllian, Mattea Morelli, and Mikahil Liutognev
   ○ You will be seeing them on the website and will help with administration.

BARONIAL SUBGROUP REPORTS

Canton of Summergate (TH Lady Carrie Bear)
We have been doing Zoom business-esque meetings every few months (02/12, 04/09, 05/14). We are having an unofficial “embroidery” contest where as many people as want to join, can. This is just to encourage and support one of our members who has taken up embroidery. We will not have an Anniversary until 2022. We are looking into starting up fighter practice again. I will be contacting the YMCA in Oceanside to find out what their policies are.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

1. Virtual Potrero 2021: Not this weekend but the weekend after
   a. Class bids will be accepted through 5/26/2021.
      i. Classes, Discussion Groups, Hangouts – all will be on Saturday.
   b. Will be at 1pm Sunday.
   c. Our website will be updated with a class list.
   d. We are sponsoring a photo contest: Potrero @ Home Photo Contest Celebrate & show off how you have embraced the SCA at home during our time apart over the past year. Share a photo of yourself or anyone 18 and up within you household having an SCA event at home. Bonus points for garb and re-creating your favorite historical piece of art! Post on Instagram or in the Potrero War Facebook group and make sure to tag #potrerowarphotos anytime between now and 5/28/2021. Winners will be announced at Court on Sunday 5/30/2021.

2. 2022 Events:
   a. We will be opening event bids for 2022 June 1.
   b. We will combo Leodamas of Thebes with Leif Erickson and look at holding them on 8/7/2021 with a potential twilight tournament.
      i. It will be called Calafia’s Greatest Warrior
   c. While Calafia’s Greatest Warrior can be at Allied Gardens it is too small for Anniversary and the inside of Allied Gardens does not work for Winter Arts... also, it can’t work for Equestrian because horses.
   d. We are resetting the bids for events.
UPCOMING EVENTS, CONT.

3. Potrero 2022 updates:
   a. Bids for Potrero War 2022 will close Labor Day weekend.
      i. We are going to have a lot to work on in the summertime so we can kick it off at the beginning of 2022.
      ii. If you want to be a part of Potrero there will be an option in the docs to show your interest.
   b. While the Barony is financially standing on its own, our funds are dangerously low and we have concerns about funding Potrero War 2022. We will begin accepting donations by mail, please contact our exchequer to confirm steps, and possibly by PayPal in the near future. We will also have fundraisers throughout the coming year and our goal is to raise between 10-15k that will solely go to support Potrero War.
      i. We are going to open fundraising for 2022 Potrero War.
      1. The goal is about $10-15k in order to support the war.
      2. The reason we are looking at fundraising is that we have not had Potrero for two years and it is the event that allows us to pay for the Keep as well as our infrastructure. We have had to dip into our General Funds to cover those costs so they are exceptionally low.
      3. Should Guilds be so inclined they can release funds back to the Barony for Potrero.
   c. Parlane of Glen Ord to discuss park volunteer opportunities.
      i. The park has asked for support and we will be sharing more details as they become available.
      1. Spoke to George – they have continued doing work on the park, but they need help.

Q&A:

- Are we going to do in person Councils?
  - A: Not right now
- Is Leodamus and Leif combination permanent?
  - A: Right now it’s temporary but if it turns out that everyone likes it, we can consider making it permanent.

OLD BUSINESS:

N/A

NEW BUSINESS:

1. SCA Re-Opening:
   a. Events
      i. All attendees must be pre-registered using the SCARS system.
      1. These rules apply Kingdom wide.
      2. You will not be able to just show up to an event.
      3. SCARS is a credit card system.
   ii. We will be limiting attendance based on California, County, and City regulations. If another area of the kingdom has tighter limitation than Calafia we must ask for a variance to hold larger events.
      1. The cap right now is currently 150. However, if the county says 50 only then we will only be able to do 50 attendees.
         a. There are wiggle rooms, but we will ALWAYS go with what State, City, and County says as this is the LAW.
iii. At this time mask ARE required for all gatherings, this may change as the State, County and City reacts to CDC updates. However, we MUST comply with all rules set down in our contracts with sites. Please be patient with our sites and SCA regulation.
   1. This includes practices.
   2. The SCA doesn’t require us to check your temperature but if Allied Gardens requires proof of vaccination cards we MUST comply.
      a. If that does happen, we will reach out to Allied Gardens to find out what to do for those who are unable to take the vaccination due to allergies or other medical reasons.
      Once we know we will let everyone know.
iv. Food sharing will not be permitted events at this time. You may bring snacks and meals for yourself and anyone in your immediate household (people you live with). We will adjust guidelines as we are permitted.
   1. You can share with folks you LIVE with but no one on the outside.
   2. We will be looking at maybe providing bottled water but err on the side of just taking care of your own food and drink at Practices or Events.
v. Events MUST break even. As such you may see events combined and postponed over the next year or so. If it looks like it will not break even the event will be postponed.
   1. Our top priority is Potrero War as that is the event that keep the Barony going.

Q&A:

- Will it be publicized about the event not possibly happening?
  - A: Absolutely

2. Fighter Practices:
   a. I am happy to announce that we will be holding practices in Calafia and Summergate!
   b. Calafia practice will begin 6/2/2021 and be held Wednesday nights from 6 – 9 at Allied Gardens. Practices on 6/2 and 6/9 will be primarily focused on re-authorizations and armor inspections. We ask that all authorized marshals that can attend please coordinate with our Baronial Marshal Davin to help in the effort.
      i. Brigade practice will be held 6/13/2021!!!
         1. Brigade is for all fighting arts not just heavies.
      ii. Baronial Practice will be at Allied Gardens. If you have questions about Summergate please check at their business meeting as they might have additional rules for their area.
   c. Rules for practice:
      i. Due to anticipated attendance All attendees must RSVP for fighter practice and fill out a form (TBD on the form), this means we will be gathering your modern name, phone number, and email address. The purpose of this is to allow for contact tracing if a COVID infection is reported.
         1. If you do not RSVP, you will not be able to attend. We will give priority to all fighters.
         2. TBD on the attendance restrictions, I will have more information after 6/1.
         3. Since this will be a free ‘event’ we will be using iVolunteer for sign-ups, please keep an eye out for the link.
      ii. Practices will remain free; however, we will be asking that all guilds associated with fighting (Iron Brigades, Unarmored, Rapier and Equestrians guilds) pay for costs associated with practices. Donations from the populace may also be accepted to offset the cost.

1. Cost for Allied Gardens is $22.79 a quarter and $50 for insurance (I have requested this for Q2 and 3).
2. Cost for Tumble Weed is $100 each practice with a $100 certificate for the year.

d. At this time masks WILL BE required at Allied Gardens, please be patient as we wait for our sites to react to change in CDC guidelines.
e. Social distancing WILL BE required if you are not actively engaged in fighting.
   i. If you have a question – Social Distancing is 6 ft apart.
f. We will announce an additional rules or changes to these rules in the Baronial Facebook group, Iron Brigade group and Rapier Guild group. Please keep an eye out on these groups for updates.
g. Attendance restrictions will apply to practices. We ask that non-fighters limit their attendance to practice so we can keep the risk to a minimum so that we may maximize the time and attendance for those fighting.
   i. Fighters will always be given priority and for the 1st few practices those fighters that need to reauthorize will be given priority.
   ii. Whatever the County, City, State tells us are restrictions we will comply with. We will not be less strict.
   iii. Consider 06/02 and 06/09 as the “soft launch” for practices. Please work with the marshals for reauthorizations and armor checks.
   1. Please be safe when we get out onto the field.
h. All fighters might present a current signed blue card or complete the Society Waiver for attendance and combat.

2. Guild Meetings:
   a. In an effort to control our costs we encourage guilds to meet virtually using our Zoom or Discord. If you have any questions on gaining access or how to use, please contact us.
   i. If you would like to hold an in person meeting all attendees MUST register using the same form required for practices.
   ii. We have not been able to reserve Allied Gardens indoor facilities and we encourage guilds to look into locating a public facility and contacting the Seneschal and Exchequer with information and cost. Please note that the Seneschal is the ONLY person authorized to sign contracts on behalf of the Barony in the SCA. Guilds WILL BE responsible for paying any cost associated with sites. If you want to use Guild Funds, please contact the Exchequer and Seneschal so they can help you through the process.
   1. Using a private home for meetings will be permitted and treated as a society event as required by Corpora.
   2. Homeowners will be treated the site owner and may set the rules for masks requirements / social distancing / vaccination requirements / temperature checks as allowed by State, County, and City regulations. You may NOT be less strict than these regulations but may be stricter.
      a. If you need guidance on locating your State, County, and City regulations please reach out to the Seneschal.
      b. The event must be publicized with an address being provided to any who wishes to attend, and the homeowner may determine how this is to be provided. You cannot cut anyone out of attending simply because you don’t like them.

c. Youth may only attend if the event is in FULL compliance with all rules documented in the Youth Handbook. Please contact our Youth officer or seneschal for guidance.
d. The person in charge of the gathering will be required to check blue cards or having the society waiver signed by anyone that cannot present a blue card. The completed waiver MUST be provided to the seneschal as soon as possible after the meeting.

Q&A:
- Will Youth be able to be at Brigade?
  o A: Yes
- Will we have access to the bathrooms at Allied Gardens for Practice and Brigade?
  o A: We do not know yet but will be able to provide an answer once we have the contract.
- Will we be having regular Sunday practices?
  o A: No, we opted for just Wednesdays for now.
- For classes, do they need Blue cards or sign waivers?
  o A: Yes
- Do we know when Tumbleweed will be open for practice?
  o A: 07/11
- Can Homeowners host fighter practices?
  o A: We cannot insure someone’s home so if you are looking at hosting a fighter practice please contact the Seneschal.
- Do you need volunteers for Marshalls?
  o A: Probably

- I have quite a few guys that are new and need authorization. Can we schedule something that isn’t on the practice days?
  o A: We are working on authorizing Marshalls right now so that during the first few practices the majority of what they will be handling is authorizations. 06/02 and 06/09 are focused to do that.
  NOTE: Please make sure that if you have new folks in armor wanting to authorize that they have all their armor in order and know what they are doing.
  - Per the Kingdom Earl Marshall: We need to have the reauths happen at an event or at practice. Anybody whose card expired in 2020 or the BEGINNING of 2021 are considered to be authorized. If your card expired before 2020 you are still expired. The goal is to get everyone authorized for Brigade.
- Will the MIT’s be needed for armor checks?
  o A: TBD- look for the post.
- Can we still practice at Allied Gardens on our own on Sundays?
  o A: Please no. We do not want to jeopardize our relationship with Allied Gardens.

DISCUSSION ITEMS:

1. The creation of a Rapier Tournament in 2022
   a. The Barony of Calafia was approached by the rapier community of Caid about sponsoring a Rapier Only tournament for those fighters that are not MODs.
     i. This event will be modeled after Unbelted, but specifics of this have not yet been determined save for that it will be rapier only.
     ii. It was requested that the event be held in North County and the future event steward and seneschal will work to locate a suitable site.
     iii. The community was advised that this event must break even like all others and they may utilize guild funds in order to accomplish this.

iv. This event will for the future, be held and owned by Calafia and not be a Kingdom event, this puts all financial impact and planning on Calafia like all other baronial events.
  1. We are looking at potentially taking over Pol na Gainmhe’s old Anniversary date but as of now it is TBD.

b. As this will impact Calafia we will be putting this to vote of confidence of the populace starting 5/22/2021 through 6/15/2021 with the results being announced at June council, 6/17/2021. We are trying to give the Kingdom Seneschal and Scheduler enough time to work on dates for 2022.
  i. This will be held online using a Google Form, you must have a Gmail account to participate as we will be limit votes to one vote per person. If you do not have a Gmail account and do not wish to sign up for one you may send your vote of confidence to the seneschal via email.

Q&A:

- Regarding events, our calendar is very congested and while we are looking at future events right now in terms of adding an event it seems like a good time to see what events to get rid of or combine to make things more efficient and not burn out our event volunteer pool.
  - A: Yes, we are looking at ways to relax things.
- Will the populace be a part of the events conversation?
  - A: We will probably start with polls and then if necessary, offer “open houses” for more discussion and to answer questions that arise.
- The Canton of Summerrgat gives full support to the Rapier Community and this event. In terms of staffing and location we are happy to provide whatever is needed.

If we want to know more about the R&D list how do we find out?
  - A: Email the Kingdom Seneschal (seneschal@sac-caid.org) for more information.
- What is happening with The Great Keep Cleanout?
  - A: It has been pushed back and will be scheduled for July.
